STATINTL

Dear [Redacted]

I would like to arrange an opportunity for some of my students in American Government at the George Washington University to visit the Central Intelligence Agency for a briefing this coming Friday, April 13th at 1:30pm.

In addition to an overview of the organization and functions of the CIA, our students have expressed an interest in:

- a range of issues, including international terrorism, U.S. stakes in Egypt/Iran, the Argentine/Brazilian conflict, and the spread of nuclear capabilities worldwide.
- a tour of headquarters
- an open question and answer period
- CIA recruitment and career paths

Enclosed you will find a roster of our class group and the information you requested.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Cole
Associate Professor
Political Science
